The following conditions apply to your application:

The seminar costs are quoted without VAT and will be charged upon confirmation of your attendance. The cancellation of the booking charge until 21 days before the event is free of charge. 14 days in advance 50% of the course payment will be charged. Cancelling afterwards the entire participation fee is payable.

Please note that the trainings are usually presented in German language. After consultation it is possible to offer trainings in English language, too. Please specify this in your registration.

Each of the trainings takes place with a minimum number of 3 registered participants. If this minimum number of participants is not achieved 14 days prior to the planned training date, OMNINET reserves the right to offer an alternative date. In this case OMNINET will contact the registered participants immediately to coordinate the new date. If the trainer is not able to carry out the training OMNINET will provide another trainer. If another trainer is exceptionally not available OMNINET will inform the participants about an alternative date. Is a participant not able or doesn't want to make use of this alternative date the participant can withdraw from this date at no charge. The withdrawal must be declared to OMNINET promptly after the notification of the alternative date. Any other rights of the participant against OMNINET are excluded.

Training locations:

D-90542 Eckental or A-1200 Vienna (Engerthstraße 90, ITSM Partner). Please take the location into account when registering for a specific training.

For BI Desktop training following applies:

The cancellation of the booking charge until 6 weeks before the event is free of charge, cancelling afterwards the entire participation fee is payable.

Each of the trainings takes place with a minimum number of 4 registered participants. If this minimum number of participants is not achieved 4 weeks prior to the planned training date, OMNINET reserves the right to offer an alternative date.

Apart from that the above stated provisions apply.

On request we also offer all trainings at your company site.
